TRAVEL TIPS

WHEN TO GO

Bali has a tropical climate and is warm and humid all year round. May to September is the dry season with slightly cooler temperatures. October to April is the green season and is warmer and more humid.

Bali's peak surf is during the dry season when the west coast provides the best waves, while the green season brings great waves to the east coast.

VISAS & PASSPORTS

All travellers to Bali must carry a passport valid for at least six months beyond the date of departure from Australia and obtain a visa on arrival into Bali or obtain an e-visa up to 48 hours prior to travel. As visa information can change at any time, we recommend you seek advice regarding passports, visas and other travel requirements for the countries you intend visiting from the Australian Government at smartraveller.gov.au.

BALI TOURIST LEVY

As of February 2024 a tourist levy of IDR150,00 (approximately AUD15) per person applies. Payments can be made online prior to travel or on arrival at designated counters at Bali's airport and seaport. Ask your travel agent for further details.

TIME

Bali is two hours behind Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST).

LANGUAGE

Bahasa Indonesian is the official language, however English is widely spoken, particularly in major tourist areas.

TEMPERATURE & RAINFALL

Bali	J	F	M	A	M	J	J	A	S	O	N	D
Temperature (max °C)	29	30	30	32	33	31	31	31	31	31	31	30
Average rainfall (mm)	90	90	90	70	70	50	40	40	50	60	70	90

CURRENCY

The local currency is the Indonesian Rupiah (IDR)

TIPPING & ETIQUETTE

Tipping is not customary; however a token of appreciation is always welcome.

When visiting any religious site, ensure you dress conservatively and avoid wearing short skirts, shorts above the knee, singlets or sleeveless blouses. A sarong and sash are usually available for hire at most sites. Remember to remove your shoes before entering a temple. Balinese culture is unique, so take some time to learn about the varying customs and requirements.

SHOPPING

From the moment you reach Bali, you'll be astounded by the sheer variety of goods on offer. At local markets and shopping centres you'll find the real bargains. Bargaining is accepted just about everywhere except in supermarkets, department stores and hotels.

ELECTRICITY

230V 50Hz. Two round pin plug. An adapter is required.

NYEPI DAY

Nyepi is a Balinese 'Day of Silence' celebrated on 19th March 2026. The day is honoured by no activity, no traffic, no fires and a total day of silence across the island. There are no arrivals or departures to the island of Bali on this day.

EXPERIENCES YOU'LL LOVE

The best part of any journey is the experiences you have along the way, leaving you with memories to relive long after the holiday is over.

Bali has countless amazing things to see and do. Here are some of our favourites to inspire your wanderlust.

LOCAL BALINESE FOOD

With many different cultures in Indonesia, it's no wonder Balinese food is so diverse. Make sure you try some of these famous dishes. Lawar (minced meat salad), sate (Bali's version of satay on a stick), Babi guling (sucking pig) and jajanan pasar (sweet cakes) just to name a few. Feast on fresh seafood at a beachfront restaurant in Jimbaran Bay or find a little café with local delicacies. Why not take a cooking class and learn how to make traditional Balinese dishes.

Tanah Lot

ANCIENT BALI TEMPLES

No holiday to Bali would be complete without visiting some of its peaceful scenic temples (pura). Perched atop a rocky outcrop amidst the crashing waves of the Indian Ocean, north of Seminyak, you'll find the most respected and important sea temple, Pura Tanah Lot. Further afield discover the holiest of temples – Pura Besakih on the slopes of Mount Agung, Pura Ulun Danu Bratan on the shores of Lake Bratan and the dramatic Pura Uluwatu. Central Bali is home to the 11th century Goa Gajah and The Gunung Kawi Temple.

Gili Trawangan

UNDERWATER PARADISE

Discover a treasure trove of natural wonders under the sea at the Gili Islands, Nusa Penida and Nusa Lembongan. Only a 45 minute boat ride from Sanur Beach, the calm waters around Nusa Lembongan and Nusa Penida are a delight for snorkellers and divers. The clear waters are teeming with tropical fish and coral gardens. With 25 dives sites in the Gili Islands, see diverse marine life including turtles, reef sharks and rays.

Nusa Penida

Mother Temple of Bali, Pura Besakih, situated on the slopes of Mount Agung, is Bali's most important temple

BEACH CLUBS

Discover Bali's world renowned beach clubs, which offer a unique blend of relaxation and entertainment. You can enjoy handcrafted cocktails whilst you swim, soak up the sun and dance to live DJ's. Visit Ku De Ta Bali which offers an upscale beachfront space to watch the sunset. Spot celebrities at the poolside stage at Potato Head Beach Club in Seminyak. Take in the ocean views from either the family friendly or adults only areas at Finns Beach Club or enjoy the 24 metre infinity pool and open air restaurant at Ulu Cliffhouse.

Finns Beach Club

CULTURE & DANCING

In the early 15th century, the cultural beliefs of the Balinese and Hindu came together through dance and music. Today, this tradition is still very important and each dance has its own significant meaning to the Balinese people. The Barong Dance represents the fight between good and evil. The Kecak is a thrilling fire dance performed by chanting males, while the Frog Dance tells a romantic story inspired by the frog and a princess fairy tale. Don't miss the opportunity to see these dances performed in traditional villages, temples and even in some hotels.

YOGA & WELLNESS

Bali is renowned for its wellness retreats. The 'Island of the Gods' will help you relax, heal and return home a healthier person in mind, body, and spirit. Learn the art of meditation, relax with a yoga class or take part in a traditional Balinese ceremony or healing ritual dedicated to health and wellbeing. Join a yoga session in the Yoga Bale, located on the edge of the Ayung River at The Royal Pita Maha Resort in Ubud. Or start your day with a yoga class overlooking the ocean and end the day with a relaxing massage at Double-Six Luxury Hotel in Seminyak.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTIONS

Product descriptions and accommodation ratings featured in this brochure are provided by the individual Suppliers. Facilities, features or ratings are subject to change at any time. Tours may not operate on certain dates and durations and departure times are approximate only. You should check at the time of booking for any changes to published information of which we may be aware.

BONDS

Bonds or credit card imprints are required by most Suppliers at the time of check-in to cover incidentals and fees not included in your holiday cost.

TRANSFERS & TOURS

Some Accommodation Suppliers provide courtesy transfers to/from the airport. It is essential that these transfers are pre-booked. Some Tour Suppliers provide complimentary pick up and return to your holiday accommodation and require a minimum number of passengers to operate. If minimum numbers are not achieved tours may be cancelled at short notice. Additionally, some Suppliers reserve the right to cancel departures for other reasons, including bad weather. Some tours and itineraries may also vary and attractions may be substituted due to seasonal conditions. Viva Holidays will not be held liable for a service variation, cancellation, delay or withdrawal, or a Supplier's failure to notify you. A full refund applies for the cancelled tour.

We strongly recommend you take out appropriate travel insurance to cover your travel arrangements.
